David,

ORS has reviewed information and calculations related to the impact of the Tax Cut and Jobs Act provided to ORS by CWS, and we concur with certain revisions.

I have discussed this with Mr. Terreni and based on this recalculation I understand that CWS believes that it will no longer need to file supplemental testimony.

In order to present the corrected tax calculations to the Commission, ORS intends to file revised Surrebuttal Testimony of Zac Payne and Matt Schellinger by no later than this Friday, March 30th.

To avoid confusion regarding the revisions to, and overall impact of, the tax calculations, ORS proposes to file complete sets of revised testimony and exhibits for Mr. Payne and Mr. Schellinger.

I appreciate your indulgence and apologize for any confusion but ORS wants to ensure that accurate information is provided to the Commission, and that we do so as far in advance of the hearing as possible.

Dear David,

We should have an order of witnesses by this afternoon.

We also plan to request the Commission accept supplemental testimony from CWS regarding the Tax Cut and Jobs Act issue later today. The Company was unable to estimate the full effect of the TCJA until it filed its rebuttal testimony, and we believe the Commission would benefit from a response to the ORS's surrebuttal testimony on the issue. I have had the opportunity to discuss this request with Jeff Nelson and Laura Valtorta and they do not object. I invite the other parties to comment on the request by copy of this email.

Sincerely,

Charlie Terreni
